AIM/SCTP/Midway Foundation

- Sherry Anderson reported she is looking into applying for a grant(s) for whatever they need to hold their championships at the PSSA for 2026.

- As of now, PA SCTP will pay the $10,000 rental fee for the machines for sporting clays and to have 2 5-stands. Sherry is also looking around for other bids to lease the machines.
- PSSA will take care of mowing and getting the area ready for sporting clays.
- They have $5,000 left over from Midway to use for the kids.
- Midway is a matching grant which includes labor.
- Interest in holding the regional shoot in the Spring at the PSSA also.

Property R&M

A letter was sent about the sewer infiltration issue. Don has a couple of people working on the issue.

Cathy reported that Randy contacted Frank's Electric and they are waiting for PP&L to get back to him.

Old Business

No old business.

New Business

Caitlin Bonser reported that the games for the Pig Roast will include: cornhole ($10/team), 27-yard doubles and Annie Oakley.

There will be a dunk tank (dunk the delegate, the EC and anyone who volunteers) $10/3 balls. At the Save-a-Pair auction on Friday night, auction off throwing balls at the person of the bid winner's choice with half of the winning bid going to the Save-a-Pair and half going to the PSSA. Carlette agreed.

NOTE: Date change for Westy Hogans 2026, September 18-20, 2026 (tentative upon help)

The next meeting will be held on Thursday, August 14 at 7:00 p.m.

Zach moved and Jim seconded to adjourn. Motion carried.

Respectively submitted,
Cathy Parson, PSSA secretary
